

Four Shakespeare Songs (From The Passionate Pilgrim)

These four songs were written over the end of last year and the beginning of this for today's recital and today's performers. They represent an attempt to pay homage to a variety of musical styles whilst using my own musical voice. Listen out for echoes of Elizabethan song, serial music and even the Blues!